THAT’S SEW CREATIVE

CAPABILITY STATEMENT | Mobile Sewing + Textile Arts Education

COMPANY OVERVIEW

That’s Sew Creative (TSC) is a Dallas–Fort Worth mobile sewing education business delivering hands-on sewing, fashion design, and textile arts programs. We bring equipment, materials, and professional instruction directly to schools and community locations, helping organizations offer creative skill-building without establishing a permanent sewing studio.

CORE CAPABILITIES

- School & Youth Programming: Beginner sewing, fashion engineering, after-school enrichment, camps, and project-based learning for ages 8+.
- Workshops & Multiweek Series: Single-session classes, recurring programs, camps, and residencies for youth, adults, and seniors.
- Fashion & Practical Skills: Machine operation, garment construction, alterations, design fundamentals, and creative career exploration.
- Textile Arts & Sustainability: Mending, upcycling, fabric reuse, and creative textile projects.
- Group Experiences: Team-building workshops, private group events, and customized organizational experiences.
- Curriculum & Educational Kits: Customizable sewing and textile arts curriculum, instructional resources, and project-based kits for classroom, enrichment, and independent learning applications; available by request.

WHAT SETS US APART

- Turnkey mobile delivery: Machines, tools, materials, and instruction for agreed-upon programs.
- Adaptable instruction: Programs tailored to participant age, skill level, group size, and learning goals.
- Experienced leadership: Founder with 15+ years in fashion design and sewing instruction experience since 2016.
- Flexible staffing: Founder-led programs with skilled contract instructors engaged as needed for program scope.

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

Experience delivering school-based and after-school enrichment programming includes Dallas-area private schools and a DeSoto charter school. TSC has also provided programs for municipalities—including communities such as Dallas, Farmers Branch, Cedar Hill, DeSoto, and Mesquite—as well as Dallas-area cultural centers, libraries, senior programs, and community organizations. Program references available upon request.

SERVICE AREA & DELIVERY

Dallas–Fort Worth Metroplex and surrounding North Texas communities. On-site workshops, camps, recurring series, and customized programs. Flexible capacity: Sewing-machine workshops typically serve 10 participants per instructor; additional instructional support may accommodate larger groups. Non-machine textile arts workshops can serve up to 35 participants, depending on activity, space, and project needs.

BUSINESS CONTACT

Chelita McDuffie | Founder & Creative Director | 817-903-2443

info@thatssewcreative.com | www.thatssewcreative.com/organizations